

INTEGRATED POLICY OF THE SAFETY AND HEALTH MANAGEMENT SYSTEM AT WORK, QUALITY AND ENVIRONMENT

TECH INDUSTRIALES GLOBALES S.R.L. is a company dedicated to providing comprehensive solutions and services for efficient energy management. Being a reference in reliability, innovation and operational excellence for the electric utilities sector, retail, as well as for medium and large companies.

Define this policy of your integrated management system, assuming the following commitments:

- Meet the requirements and expectations of customers and stakeholders through technological innovation, providing quality goods and services.
- Complying with the requirements of our clients, current laws and other requirements related to Quality, Environment, Safety and Health and the work that TECH INDUSTRIAS GLOBALES S.R.L subscribes voluntarily.
- Provide a safe and healthy work environment for our collaborators, partners, contractors and visitors, controlling the risks associated with the activities and facilities where they are carried out.
- Protect the environment, prevent environmental contamination and promote the responsible consumption of natural resources, through the identification of our environmental aspects, and the mitigation of the associated environmental impacts.
- Eliminate hazards and reduce occupational health and safety risks associated with our services.
- Guarantee that workers are consulted and actively participate in all elements of the Integrated Management System.
- Promote and guarantee the training and awareness of our collaborators with the aim of enhancing their skills to improve the performance of our integrated management system.
- Continuously improve the performance of safety, health at work, environment and quality.

Within this purpose and the context of the organization, senior management is committed and assumes leadership to fulfill our commitments, taking into account the satisfaction of our customers, the environment, the magnitude of the risks for the safety and health of workers, customers and other parties. interested.